WHY CHOOSE PHI U?

EXCLUSIVE

Eligible members must be in the top 35% of students in FCS and its related areas; Special awards and grants are available only to Phi U Alumni.

Undergraduate students shall be eligible to be a collegiate member of a chapter if the individual has completed a minimum of 36 semester hours, 50 quarter hours, or the equivalent. The hours must include 6 hours of course work in areas including, but not limited to, those recognized by the American Association of Family and Consumer Sciences (AAFCS).

SCHOLARSHIP

In the 2024-2025 academic year, Phi Upsilon Omicron awarded $115,900 in scholarships, fellowships, and awards to its members.

Phi U members also have access to numerous undergraduate scholarships, graduate fellowships, and awards, with individual awards ranging from $500 and up, depending on the scholarship or fellowship.

Phi U membership also fulfills one of the requirements for entrance at the GS-7 level in numerous professional and technical occupations in the federal service.

NETWORK

Phi U has an expansive network of over 99,000 members. Our Biennial Conclave provides for personal and professional growth and the opportunity to network on a national level with established professionals and alumni.

Members also receive a subscription to The Candle, the official journal of Phi U dating back to 1915!

SERVICE

Phi U collegiate chapters participate in professional service projects utilizing the skills and knowledge as FCS majors to serve individuals, families, and the community!

LEADING

Building competence in management through opportunities including chapter and national officer positions within Phi U by using professional abilities in service to others.

LEGACY
